Statutes (Miscellaneous Amendments) Bill

Bill No. 14/2006.

Read the first time on 8th November 2006.

A BILL

i n t i t u l e d

An Act to amend certain statutes of the Republic of Singapore.

Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows:

Short title and commencement

1.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Statutes (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 2006 and shall, with the exception of sections 2 and 3, come into operation on such date as the Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint.

(2) Section 2 shall have effect for the financial year ending on any date in 2007 and subsequent financial years.

(3) Section 3 shall have effect for —

(a) records in respect of the basis period relating to the year of assessment 2008; and

(b) records in respect of the basis period relating to each subsequent year of assessment.

PART I

AMENDMENTS TO WRITTEN LAWS RELATING TO RECORD-KEEPING

Amendment of Charities Act

2. The Charities Act (Cap. 37, 1995 Ed.) is amended —

(a) by deleting the words “7 years” in section 12(3) and (4) and substituting in each case the words “5 years”; and

(b) by deleting the words “7 years” in section 13(4) and substituting the words “5 years”.

Amendment of Income Tax Act

3. Section 67(1) of the Income Tax Act (Cap. 134, 2004 Ed.) is amended by deleting the words “7 years” in paragraph (a) and substituting the words “5 years”.

Amendments to other written laws

4. The provisions of the Acts specified in the first column of the Schedule are amended in the manner set out in the second column thereof.

Transitional provision

5 5.—(1) The amendment made to each Act by each item in the Schedule in respect of record-keeping shall apply in relation to any book, document or record required to be kept or retained under the relevant provision as specified in that item, whether the obligation to keep or retain such book, document or record first arises before, on or after the date of commencement of the amendment.

10 (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply in relation to any book, document or record if the period for which it is to be kept or retained under the relevant provision in force immediately before the date of commencement of the amendment made to that provision by the Schedule has expired by that date.

PART II

AMENDMENTS TO WRITTEN LAWS RELATING TO INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Amendment of Patents Act

6.—(1) The Patents Act (Cap. 221, 2005 Ed.) is amended —

(a) by deleting the definition of “formal requirements” in section 2(1) and substituting the following definition:

20 “ “formal requirements” means those requirements of this Act and the rules which are designated by the rules as formal requirements for the purposes of this Act;”;

(b) by inserting, immediately after the definition of “medicinal product” in section 2(1), the following definition:

25 “ “missing part”, in relation to an application for a patent, means —

(a) any drawing; or

(b) any part of the description of the invention for which the patent is sought,

30 which was missing from the application at the date of filing of the application;”;

- (c) by deleting subsection (2) of section 17 and substituting the following subsections:

“(2) Where in or in connection with an application for a patent (referred to in this section as the application in suit) a declaration is made, whether by the applicant or any predecessor in title of his, complying with the relevant requirements of the rules and specifying one or more earlier relevant applications for the purposes of this section made by the applicant or a predecessor in title of his, and the application in suit has a date of filing, within the period referred to in subsection (2A)(a) or (b), then —

(a) if an invention to which the application in suit relates is supported by matter disclosed in the earlier relevant application or applications, the priority date of that invention shall, instead of being the date of filing the application in suit, be the date of filing the relevant application in which that matter was disclosed or, if it was disclosed in more than one relevant application, the earliest of them; and

(b) the priority date of any matter contained in the application in suit which was also disclosed in the earlier relevant application or applications shall be the date of filing the relevant application in which that matter was disclosed or, if it was disclosed in more than one relevant application, the earliest of them.

(2A) For the purposes of subsection (2), the period is —

(a) the period of 12 months immediately following the date of filing of the specified earlier relevant application or, if there is more than one relevant application, the earliest of them; or

(b) where the Registrar has granted a request under subsection (2B), the period commencing immediately after the period referred to in paragraph (a) and ending at the end of such period as may be prescribed.

(2B) The applicant may make a request to the Registrar for the declaration referred to in subsection (2) to be made after the period referred to in subsection (2A)(a).

(2C) Where the applicant makes a request under subsection (2B), he shall, if he has failed to file the application in suit within the period referred to in subsection (2A)(a), indicate in the request whether his failure to file the application in suit within the period referred to in subsection (2A)(a) —

(a) occurred in spite of due care required by the circumstances having been taken; or

(b) was unintentional.

(2D) The Registrar shall grant a request under subsection (2B) if and only if —

(a) the request is made within such period and in such manner, and complies with such requirements, as may be prescribed; and

(b) where the applicant has failed to file the application in suit within the period referred to in subsection (2A)(a), the Registrar is satisfied that the applicant's failure to file the application in suit within the period referred to in subsection (2A)(a) —

(i) occurred in spite of due care required by the circumstances having been taken; or

(ii) was unintentional.”;

(d) by repealing section 26 and substituting the following section:

“Date of filing application

26.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the date of filing an application for a patent shall be taken to be the earliest date on which the documents filed at the Registry to initiate the application satisfy the following conditions:

(a) the documents indicate that a patent is sought;

(b) the documents identify the applicant for the patent; and

(c) the documents contain —

(i) something which is or appears to be a description of the invention for which the patent is sought; or

(ii) where a declaration under section 17(2) is made in or in connection with the application —

(A) a reference to an earlier relevant application specified in the declaration;

5 (B) such information on the earlier relevant application as may be prescribed; and 10 (C) a statement that the description of the invention for which the patent is sought is incorporated in the application by reference to, and is completely contained in, the earlier relevant application, as filed.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c)(i), it is immaterial whether —

15 (a) the thing is in, or is accompanied by a translation into, a language accepted by the Registry in accordance with the rules; or

(b) the thing otherwise complies with the other provisions of this Act and with any relevant rules.

20 (3) Where the Registrar determines that the documents filed at the Registry to initiate an application for a patent do not satisfy all of the conditions in subsection (1)(a), (b) and (c)(i) or (ii) —

25 (a) the Registrar shall, as soon as practicable after the filing of those documents, notify the applicant of what else must be filed in order for the application to have a date of filing; and

(b) the applicant shall, within such period as may be prescribed, do either or both of the following:

30 (i) make observations on the Registrar's determination;

(ii) file every document which must be filed in order for the application to have a date of filing.

(4) Where subsection (3) applies, if the applicant fails to file every document which must be filed in order for the application to have a date of filing before the end of the period prescribed under subsection (3)(b), the application shall be treated as having been abandoned.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply if —

(a) the applicant makes observations as mentioned in subsection (3)(b)(i) before the end of the period prescribed under subsection (3)(b); and

(b) as a result of the observations, the Registrar is satisfied that the documents filed at the Registry to initiate the application satisfy all of the conditions in subsection (1)(a), (b) and (c)(i) or (ii).

(6) Where the documents filed at the Registry to initiate an application for a patent satisfy all of the conditions in subsection (1)(a), (b) and (c)(i) or (ii), the Registrar shall, as soon as practicable after the filing of the last of those documents, notify the applicant of the date of filing of the application.

(7) Where an application for a patent has a date of filing under subsection (1) by reason only that the documents filed at the Registry to initiate the application satisfy the conditions in subsection (1)(a), (b) and (c)(ii), the applicant shall, within such period as may be prescribed, file at the Registry —

(a) a written notice confirming that the description of the invention for which the patent is sought is incorporated in the application by reference to the earlier relevant application referred to in subsection (1)(c)(ii)(C);

(b) the description of the invention for which the patent is sought; and

(c) such other documents as may be prescribed.

(8) If an application for a patent has a date of filing by virtue of subsection (1), the applicant files at the Registry any missing part of the application within such period and in such manner as may be prescribed, and the applicant does not withdraw that missing part before the end of that period, then —

(a) that missing part shall be treated as included in the application; and

5 (b) the date of filing of the application shall be the date on which that missing part is filed at the Registry.

(9) Subsection (8)(b) does not apply if —

10 (a) on or before the date which is the date of filing of the application for a patent by virtue of subsection (1), a declaration is made under section 17(2), in or in connection with the application, specifying an earlier relevant application; and

(b) within such period as may be prescribed, the applicant —

15 (i) makes a request to the Registrar for subsection
(8)(b) not to apply to the application;

(ii) files a statement that the missing part referred to in subsection (8) is incorporated in the application by reference to, and is completely 20 contained in, the earlier relevant application, as filed;

(iii) furnishes such information on the earlier relevant application as may be prescribed; and

(iv) files such other documents as may be prescribed.

25 (10) Subsections (8) and (9) do not affect the power of the Registrar under section 107(1) to correct an error or a mistake.

(11) Where, after an application for a patent has been filed and before the conditions in section 30(2) and (3) are satisfied —

30 (a) a new application is filed by the original applicant or his successor in title in accordance with the rules in respect of any part of the matter contained in the earlier application; and

- (b) the conditions in subsection (1)(a), (b) and (c)(i) or (ii) are satisfied in relation to the new application (without the new application contravening section 84),

5 the new application shall be treated as having, as its date of filing, the date of filing of the earlier application.

(12) Where an application has a date of filing by virtue of this section, the application shall be treated as having been abandoned unless —

- 10 (a) the applicant files at the Registry, before the end of such period as may be prescribed, one or more claims for the purposes of the application;
- (b) the applicant pays the filing fee under section 25(1)(b) before the end of the period prescribed under section 25(2); and
- 15 (c) where the application has a date of filing under subsection (1) by reason only that the documents filed at the Registry to initiate the application satisfy the conditions in subsection (1)(a), (b) and (c)(ii), the applicant files at the Registry the documents referred to in subsection (7)(a), (b) and (c) before the end of the period prescribed under subsection (7).

(13) In this section, “relevant application” has the same meaning as in section 17(5).”;

- 25 (e) by repealing section 28 and substituting the following section:

“Preliminary examination

28.—(1) The Registrar shall conduct a preliminary examination of an application for a patent if —

- (a) the application has a date of filing;
- 30 (b) the application has not been withdrawn or treated as abandoned;
- (c) the filing fee under section 25(1)(b) has been paid;
- (d) one or more claims for the purposes of the application have been filed under section 26(12)(a); and

(e) where the application has a date of filing under section 26(1) by reason only that the documents filed at the Registry to initiate the application satisfy the conditions in section 26(1)(a), (b) and (c)(ii), the documents referred to in section 26(7)(a), (b) and (c) have been filed at the Registry.

(2) If, after the Registrar has conducted a preliminary examination of an application for a patent under subsection (1), the applicant files at the Registry, and does not withdraw, any missing part of the application in accordance with section 26(8), then the Registrar shall conduct another preliminary examination of the application, with the missing part treated as included in the application.

(3) On a preliminary examination of an application, the Registrar shall determine —

(a) whether the application complies with all the formal requirements; and

(b) whether —

(i) any drawing referred to in the application; or

(ii) any part of the description of the invention for which the patent is sought, is missing from the application.

(4) If the Registrar determines under subsection (3)(a) that not all the formal requirements have been complied with, then the Registrar shall notify the applicant accordingly and shall specify in the notification a period during which the applicant shall have the opportunity —

(a) to make observations on the Registrar's determination; and

(b) subject to section 84, to amend the application so as to comply with all the formal requirements.

(5) Where subsection (4) applies, the Registrar may refuse the application if the applicant fails to amend the application as mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection before the end of the period specified by the Registrar under that subsection.

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply if —

(a) the applicant makes observations as mentioned in subsection (4)(a) before the end of the period specified by the Registrar under subsection (4); and

5 (b) as a result of the observations, the Registrar is satisfied that all the formal requirements have been complied with.

(7) If the Registrar determines under subsection (3)(b) that a drawing or part of the description of the invention is missing from the application, then the Registrar shall notify the applicant accordingly.

(8) Where subsection (7) applies, if the applicant files the drawing or part of the description of the invention that is missing from the application within such period and in such manner as may be prescribed, and the applicant does not withdraw that drawing or part of the description of the invention before the end of that period, then —

(a) that drawing or part of the description of the invention shall be treated as included in the application; and 20 (b) the date of filing of the application shall be the date on which that drawing or part of the description of the invention is filed at the Registry.

(9) Subsection (8)(b) does not apply if —

25 (a) on or before the date which is the date of filing of the application by virtue of section 26(1), a declaration is made under section 17(2), in or in connection with the application, specifying an earlier relevant application; and

30 (b) within such period as may be prescribed, the applicant —

(i) makes a request to the Registrar for subsection (8)(b) not to apply to the application;

35 (ii) files a statement that the drawing or part of the description of the invention referred to in subsection (8) is incorporated in the application by reference to, and is completely contained in, the earlier relevant application, as filed;

(iii) furnishes such information on the earlier relevant application as may be prescribed; and

5 (iv) files such other documents as may be prescribed.

(10) In subsection (9), “relevant application” has the same meaning as in section 17(5).”;

(f) by deleting the words “referred to in section 28(1)” in section 29(1);

10 (g) by deleting the words “Upon receiving the Registrar’s notification under subsection (1), the” in section 29(2) and substituting the word “The”;

(h) by deleting paragraph (b) of section 36A(13) and substituting the following paragraphs:

15 “(b) the period taken by the applicant to make observations under section 26(3)(b)(i) which satisfy the Registrar that the documents filed at the Registry to initiate the application satisfy all of the conditions in section 26(1)(a), (b) and (c)(i) or (ii), calculated 20 from the date of the Registrar’s notification to the applicant under section 26(3)(a) to the date on which the applicant makes the observations;

(ba) the period taken by the applicant to file the documents referred to in section 26(7)(a), (b) and (c), calculated 25 from the date of filing of the application for a patent to the date on which the applicant files the documents;

(bb) the period taken by the applicant to comply with section 26(9)(b), if the applicant, after filing at the Registry any missing part of the application, makes a request to the Registrar for section 26(8)(b) not to 30 apply to the application, calculated from the date on which the applicant filed at the Registry the missing part of the application to the date on which the 35 applicant complies with section 26(9)(b);”;

- (i) by deleting the words “section 26(8)” in section 36A(13)(c) and substituting the words “section 26(12)(a)”;
- (j) by deleting paragraph (d) of section 36A(13) and substituting the following paragraphs:

- 5 “(d) the period taken by the applicant to —
 - (i) make observations under section 28(4)(a) which satisfy the Registrar that all the formal requirements have been complied with; or
 - (ii) amend his application under section 28(4)(b) to
 - 10 comply with all the formal requirements,
 - calculated from the date of the Registrar’s notification under section 28(4) to the date on which the applicant makes the observations or the earliest date on which the application, as amended by the applicant,
 - 15 complies with all the formal requirements;
- (da) the period taken by the applicant to comply with section 28(9)(b), if the applicant, after filing any drawing or part of the description of the invention which is missing from the application, makes a
 - 20 request to the Registrar for section 28(8)(b) not to apply to the application, calculated from the date of the Registrar’s notification under section 28(7) to the date on which the applicant complies with section 28(9)(b);”;
- 25 (k) by deleting the words “section 26(6)” in section 80(1)(d)(ii) and substituting the words “section 26(11)”;
- (l) by deleting the words “section 26(6)” in section 84(1) and substituting the words “section 26(11)”;
- 30 (m) by inserting, immediately after subsection (1) of section 84, the following subsection:
 - “(1A) Where, in relation to an application for a patent —
 - (a) the documents filed at the Registry to initiate the application contain —
 - (i) a reference to an earlier relevant application
 - 35 specified in a declaration under section 17(2)

made in or in connection with the application;
and

(ii) a statement referred to in section 26(1)(c)(ii)(C);
and

5 (b) the description filed under section 26(7)(b) discloses additional matter, that is, matter extending beyond that disclosed in the earlier relevant application, the application shall not be allowed to proceed unless it is amended to exclude the additional matter.”;

10 (n) by inserting, immediately after subsection (3) of section 84, the following subsection:

“(4) In subsection (1A), “relevant application” has the same meaning as in section 17(5).”;

15 (o) by deleting subsections (3) and (4) of section 86 and substituting the following subsection:

“(3) The national phase of the application begins —

(a) when the prescribed period expires, provided —

20 (i) where the application has been published in accordance with the Patent Co-operation Treaty in a language other than English, and the application is not in English, an English translation of the application has been filed at the Registry; and

(ii) the prescribed fee has been paid,

25 by the applicant; or

(b) when the applicant expressly requests the Registrar to proceed earlier with the national phase of the application, pays the prescribed fee and complies with any of the following sub-paragraphs which is 30 applicable:

(i) where, at the time of the request, the application has not been published in accordance with the Patent Co-operation Treaty, file at the Registry —

- (A) a copy of the application; and
- (B) if the copy is not in English, an English translation of the application;

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to amend certain statutes of the Republic of Singapore.

Clause 1 relates to the short title and commencement.

PART I

AMENDMENTS TO WRITTEN LAWS RELATING TO RECORD-KEEPING

Clauses 2 and 3 amend the Charities Act (Cap. 37) and the Income Tax Act (Cap. 134), respectively, to reduce the record-keeping periods prescribed in those Acts to 5 years generally.

Clause 4 (read with the Schedule) —

- (a) amends certain written laws to reduce the record-keeping periods prescribed in those laws to 5 years generally; and
- (b) inserts, in relation to the record-keeping requirement in the Moneylenders Act (Cap. 188) and the Pawnbrokers Act (Cap. 222), a record-keeping period of 5 years.

Clause 5 is a transitional provision for clause 4, and provides for the new record-keeping periods by virtue of clause 4 to apply in relation to existing as well as new records.

PART II

AMENDMENTS TO WRITTEN LAWS RELATING TO INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Clause 6 makes the following amendments to the Patents Act (Cap. 221):

- (a) section 17(2) is amended to enable —
 - (i) a declaration to be made in or in connection with an application for a patent (the application in suit), such declaration specifying any earlier relevant application; and
 - (ii) the application in suit to be filed, notwithstanding the expiry of the period of 12 months immediately following the date of filing of the specified earlier relevant application, if certain requirements are satisfied;
- (b) section 26 is repealed and re-enacted —
 - (i) to modify the requirements which must be satisfied before a date of filing can be accorded to an application for a patent;
 - (ii) to modify the procedure for responding to a determination by the Registrar of Patents (the Registrar) that the documents filed to initiate an application for a patent do not satisfy all the requirements which must be satisfied before a date of filing can be accorded to the application; and

- (iii) to enable an applicant to file a missing part of his application;
- (c) section 28 is repealed and re-enacted to introduce a new procedure for the preliminary examination by the Registrar of applications for patents;
- (d) section 86(3) is amended to modify the requirements which must be satisfied before an international application for a patent (Singapore) can enter the national phase in Singapore;
- (e) section 86(6) is amended to modify the requirements which must be satisfied before an amendment to an international application for a patent (Singapore) during the international phase will be treated as made under the Patents Act; and
- (f) section 105(10) is deleted and substituted with a new section 105(10) and (10A) to clarify the circumstances in which an employee acting in his capacity as such does not contravene section 105(1).

The clause also makes certain consequential amendments to the Patents Act.

Clause 7 amends section 52 of the Plant Varieties Protection Act (Cap. 232A) —

- (a) to empower the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore (the Office) to make regulations, with the approval of the Minister, to prescribe the offences under the Act which may be compounded;
- (b) to expressly provide that on the payment of a composition sum, no further proceedings will be taken in respect of the offence for which that sum was paid against the person reasonably suspected of committing the offence; and
- (c) to provide that all composition sums collected will be paid into the funds of the Office.

The clause also makes a consequential amendment to section 2 of the Plant Varieties Protection Act to insert a definition for “Office”.

PART III

AMENDMENTS TO OTHER WRITTEN LAWS

Clause 8 amends the Boundaries and Survey Maps Act (Cap. 25) to provide for the application of the Act to limited liability partnerships licensed to supply survey services in Singapore under the Land Surveyors Act (Cap. 156).

Clause 9 amends Schedule A to the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68) to make provision for —

- (a) certain offences under the Penal Code (Cap. 224) to be seizable (so that police may arrest a person without a warrant), non-bailable and non-compoundable; and

(b) the Court by which such offences are triable.

Clause 10 amends section 43(4) of the Immigration Act (Cap. 133) to provide that the Controller of Immigration may determine the manner and form of security required, so as to allow flexibility in relation to the type or types of security which may be accepted.

Clause 11 amends the Land Surveyors Act (Cap. 156) —

- (a) to introduce a new definition of “limited liability partnership” and to make related amendments to provide for the licensing of limited liability partnerships and for the application of the Act to limited liability partnerships;
- (b) to remove the requirement for authorised surveyors engaging in survey work to have in force a practising certificate;
- (c) to require applicants for registration under the Act to pass a professional interview conducted by the Land Surveyors Board (the Board);
- (d) to provide for the removal of the name and particulars of a registered surveyor from the register if he has no address in the register at which he can be contacted;
- (e) to change certain requirements for obtaining a licence for a multi-discipline and corporate practice; and
- (f) to allow the Board to invest its funds in accordance with the standard investment power of statutory bodies.

Clause 12 makes a technical amendment to section 2 of the Parliamentary Elections Act (Cap. 218) to clarify the reference in subsection (2)(b).

Clause 13 makes a technical amendment to section 2 of the Public Transport Council Act (Cap. 259B) to clarify the definition of “ticket payment service”.

Clause 14 amends paragraph 1 of the Third Schedule to the Public Utilities Act (Cap. 261) to change the financial year of the Public Utilities Board.

Clause 15 amends section 44(1) of the Road Traffic Act (Cap. 276) to remove the restriction that particulars of convictions or disqualifications under that Act may be maintained only for a period not exceeding 3 years from the date of the conviction or expiry of disqualification, as the case may be. This would allow a court to have access to all relevant records when sentencing a repeat offender.

Clause 16 amends sections 6A and 57 of the Subordinate Courts Act (Cap. 321) to reflect the days on which the subordinate courts and the Registry of the subordinate courts are open following the introduction of the 5-day workweek in the Civil Service.

Clause 17 amends sections 10B, 32 and 72 of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act (Cap. 322) to reflect the days on which the High Court, the Court of Appeal and the Registry of the Supreme Court are open following the introduction of the 5-day workweek in the Civil Service.

Clause 18 amends section 139(1) of the Women's Charter (Cap. 353) to change the composition of the committee that is empowered under that section to make rules in relation to the practice and procedure (including fees and costs) applicable to proceedings under Part X of that Act. The committee will now include a District Judge and 2 practising advocates and solicitors, all of whom are to be appointed by the Chief Justice.

The Schedule specifies the amendments to be made to certain other written laws in relation to record-keeping periods.

EXPENDITURE OF PUBLIC MONEY

This Bill will not involve the Government in any extra financial expenditure.
