Bill No. 21/2006.

Read the first time on 8th November 2006.

A BILL

i n t i t u l e d

An Act to amend the Children Development Co-Savings Act (Chapter 38A of the 2002 Revised Edition).

Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows:

Short title and commencement

1. This Act may be cited as the Children Development Co-Savings (Amendment) Act 2006 and shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint.

Amendment of section 2

2. Section 2(1) of the Children Development Co-Savings Act (referred to in this Act as the principal Act) is amended by inserting, immediately after the definition of “bank account”, the following definition:

“ “benefit period” means —

- 10 (a) in relation to a female employee to whom subsection (1), (1B), (1D) or (1F) of section 9 applies, such period of her absence from work under the applicable subsection as she is entitled to receive payment from her employer at her gross rate of pay; or
- 15 (b) in relation to a female employee to whom subsection (1A), (1C) or (1E) of section 9 applies, such period as she is entitled under the applicable subsection to receive payment from her employer at her gross rate of pay;”.

Amendment of section 3

20 3. Section 3(2) of the principal Act is amended by deleting paragraph (i) and substituting the following paragraph:

- 25 “(i) the transfer of any moneys standing to the credit of a member in his bank account to his Edusave account or such other account in his name as may be prescribed, or the withdrawal of such moneys, at such time, in such manner and in such circumstances as may be prescribed;”.

Amendment of section 9

4. Section 9 of the principal Act is amended —

- 30 (a) by deleting the words “(referred to in this Act as the benefit period)” in subsection (1) and substituting the words “of her absence from work”;
- (b) by inserting, immediately after subsection (1), the following subsections:

“(1A) Subject to subsection (3A), section 9A and any regulations made under section 20, every female employee who —

- (a) delivers a child who is not a citizen of Singapore at the time of his birth;
- (b) satisfies the requirements of section 9A(1A); and
- (c) absents herself from work under section 76(1) of the Employment Act (Cap. 91), shall be entitled to receive payment from her employer at her gross rate of pay —

- (i) where section 76(1)(a) of that Act applies and the child is delivered during her first or second confinement —

- (A) if the child becomes a citizen of Singapore within the first 4 weeks of the period referred to in section 76(1)(a)(ii) of that Act, for the last 4 weeks of that period; or

- (B) if the child becomes a citizen of Singapore after the first 4 weeks of the period referred to in section 76(1)(a)(ii) of that Act, for the period commencing on the day the child becomes a citizen of Singapore and ending on the last day of the period referred to in section 76(1)(a)(ii) of that Act;

- (ii) where section 76(1)(a) of that Act applies and the child is delivered during her third or fourth confinement, for the period commencing on the day the child becomes a citizen of Singapore and ending on the last day of the period referred to in section 76(1)(a)(ii) of that Act;

- (iii) where section 76(1)(b) of that Act applies and the child is delivered during her first or second confinement —

- 5 (A) if the child becomes a citizen of Singapore within the first 8 weeks of the period referred to in section 76(1)(b) of that Act, for the last 4 weeks of the period referred to in section 76(1)(b) of that Act; or
- 10 (B) if the child becomes a citizen of Singapore after the first 8 weeks of the period referred to in section 76(1)(b) of that Act, for the period commencing on the day the child becomes a citizen of Singapore and ending on the last day of the period referred to in section 76(1)(b) of that Act;
- 15 (iv) where section 76(1)(b) of that Act applies and the child is delivered during her third or fourth confinement, for the period commencing on the day the child becomes a citizen of Singapore and ending on the last day of the period referred to in section 76(1)(b) of that Act;
- 20 (v) where section 76(1)(c) of that Act applies and the child is delivered during her first or second confinement —
- 25 (A) if the child becomes a citizen of Singapore within the period of 8 weeks referred to in section 76(1)(c)(i) of that Act, for every period referred to in section 76(1)(c)(ii) of that Act; or
- 30 (B) if the child becomes a citizen of Singapore after the period of 8 weeks referred to in section 76(1)(c)(i) of that Act, for every period referred to in section 76(1)(c)(ii) of that Act commencing on or after the day the child becomes a citizen of Singapore; or
- 35 (vi) where section 76(1)(c) of that Act applies and the child is delivered during her third or fourth confinement —

(A) if the child becomes a citizen of Singapore within the period of 8 weeks referred to in section 76(1)(c)(i) of that Act, for —

5 (AA) the period commencing on the day the child becomes a citizen of Singapore and ending on the last day of the period referred to in section 76(1)(c)(i) of that Act; and

10 (AB) every period referred to in section 76(1)(c)(ii) of that Act; or

(B) if the child becomes a citizen of Singapore after the period of 8 weeks referred to in section 76(1)(c)(i) of that Act, for every period referred to in section 76(1)(c)(ii) of that Act commencing on or after the day the child becomes a citizen of Singapore.

6 months commencing on the day of her confinement; and

- (e) has lost any income by reason of her ceasing to be actively engaged in such trade, business, profession or vocation,

shall be entitled to claim from the Government the income she would otherwise have derived from her trade, business, profession or vocation had she continued to be actively engaged in such trade, business, profession or vocation during such period referred to in subsection (5) as may be applicable.”; and

- (f) by deleting subsection (5) and substituting the following subsections:

“(5) A self-employed woman shall be entitled to receive payment from the Government —

- (a) in respect of her first or second confinement —

- (i) under subsection (4), for such period of her cessation of active engagement in her trade, business, profession or vocation which is after the first 8 weeks of such cessation; or

- (ii) under subsection (4A), (4B) or (4C), for a period of her cessation of active engagement in her trade, business, profession or vocation which —

- (A) does not exceed 4 weeks; and

5 (B) is after a period of 8 weeks commencing not earlier than 28 days immediately preceding the date of that confinement, during which she ceases to be actively engaged in her trade, business, profession or vocation; and

10 (b) in respect of her third or fourth confinement, under subsection (4), (4A), (4B) or (4C), for the whole period of her cessation of active engagement in her trade, business, profession or vocation.

(6) In subsections (1E), (1F) and (4C), “relevant event”, in relation to a female employee or self-employed woman who —

5 (7) In this section, “dependant’s pass”, in relation to a child, means a dependant’s pass issued in respect of the child under regulations made under the Immigration Act (Cap. 133) to enable the child to remain, or to enter and remain, in Singapore for the purposes of adoption under the Adoption of Children Act (Cap. 4).”.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to amend the Children Development Co-Savings Act (Cap. 38A) for the following main purposes:

- (a) to enable the moneys standing to the credit of a member of the Children Development Co-Savings Scheme (the Scheme) in his bank account opened for the purposes of the Scheme to be transferred to the member’s Edusave account under the Education Endowment Scheme Act (Cap. 87A) or to such other account in the name of the member as may be prescribed by the Minister;
- (b) to extend maternity protection and benefits to any female employee, and maternity benefits to any self-employed woman, whose child is not a citizen of Singapore, or is not a legitimate child, at the time of the child’s birth, if certain requirements are satisfied; and
- (c) to provide for reimbursement by the Government —
 - (i) to any employer who has granted paid adoption leave to a female employee who has applied to adopt a child; and
 - (ii) to any self-employed woman who has applied to adopt a child and who has lost income due to her ceasing to be actively engaged in her trade, business, profession or vocation in connection with the adoption of the child.

Clause 1 relates to the short title and commencement.

Clause 2 amends section 2(1) to introduce a new definition for “benefit period” which is consequential to the insertion of the new section 9(1A), (1B), (1C), (1D), (1E) and (1F) by clause 4(b).

Clause 3 amends section 3(2)(i) to enable the Minister to make regulations providing for any moneys standing to the credit of a member of the Scheme in his bank account opened for the purposes of the Scheme to be transferred to the member’s Edusave account or to such other account in the name of the member as may be prescribed by the Minister.

Clause 4 amends section 9 to provide for —

- (a) paid maternity leave to be extended to a female employee in respect of her first, second, third or fourth confinement; and
- (b) payment by the Government of lost business income to be extended to a self-employed woman in respect of her first, second, third or fourth confinement, notwithstanding that the child is not a citizen of Singapore, or is not a legitimate child, at the time of the child's birth, if certain requirements are satisfied.

Clause 5 amends section 9A to set out the eligibility criteria for maternity benefits and the maximum amounts that —

- (a) a female employee is entitled to be paid by her employer; and
- (b) a self-employed woman is entitled to claim from the Government, if the child is not a citizen of Singapore, or is not a legitimate child, at the time of the child's birth.

Clause 6 amends section 10(1) to specify the part of the maternity leave period of a female employee in respect of which her employer may claim reimbursement from the Government, if the child is not a citizen of Singapore, or is not a legitimate child, at the time of the child's birth.

Clause 7 amends section 12A to provide for reimbursement by the Government —

- (a) to any employer who has granted to a married, widowed or divorced female employee paid leave in connection with her adoption of a child for one or more periods, not exceeding 24 days in the aggregate, during the period commencing on the day the Director of Social Welfare is appointed as guardian in adoption of the child (if the child is a citizen of Singapore at the time the application for adoption is made) or a dependant's pass is issued in respect of the child (if the child is not a citizen of Singapore at the time the application for adoption is made), and ending on the day before the child attains 6 months of age; and
- (b) to any married, widowed or divorced self-employed woman who has lost income due to her ceasing to be actively engaged in her trade, business, profession or vocation in connection with her adoption of a child, for one or more periods, not exceeding 24 days in the aggregate, during the period commencing on the day the Director of Social Welfare is appointed as guardian in adoption of the child (if the child is a citizen of Singapore at the time the application for adoption is made) or a dependant's pass is issued in respect of the child (if the child is not a citizen of Singapore at the time the application for adoption is made), and ending on the day before the child attains 6 months of age.

EXPENDITURE OF PUBLIC MONEY

This Bill will involve the Government in extra financial expenditure, the exact amount of which cannot at present be ascertained.
