Clause 22 inserts a new Part XIII A (sections 105A to 105D) which deals with the sending of members of the Force to serve outside Singapore. The new sections 105A to 105D are adapted from sections 56 to 59 of the Police Force Act (Cap. 235).

The new section 105A empowers the Minister, on a request being made by or with the consent of a government of a territory outside Singapore, or on a request being made by a United Nations agency, or in connection with any agreement or arrangement with a government of a territory outside Singapore (such as the ASEAN Agreement on Disaster Management and Emergency Response (AADMER)), to order members of the Force to proceed outside Singapore to carry out duties to respond to and deal with a civil defence emergency taking place in that territory. However, auxiliary members may be deployed on overseas missions only if they consent. The Minister will not make any such order unless he is satisfied that adequate provisions have been or will immediately be made in the territory outside Singapore for the proper carrying out of duties by members of the Force in that territory. These may include having all members of the Force serving outside Singapore remain under the orders of their own commanding officers, and being conferred with the powers, duties and privileges of members of the equivalent civil defence force in that territory. The new section 105A(4) also empowers the Commissioner to issue directions of a routine nature to members of the Force on overseas duties.

The new section 105B provides that members of the Force serving outside Singapore under the Part will not cease to be subject to the Act by reason only of such overseas service.

The new sections 105C and 105D make it an offence under Singapore law for any member of the Force on an overseas mission under the Part to do or omit to do anything outside Singapore that would be an offence in Singapore if done or omitted to be done in Singapore. The exception is if the authorities in the territory where the act or omission occurred are entitled to exercise the criminal jurisdiction of that territory in respect of that act or omission, do not cede that jurisdiction to Singapore, and do in fact bring criminal proceedings against the person in that territory. The new section 105D(4) also provides that any disciplinary offence committed when serving overseas may be investigated and proceeded by way of disciplinary proceedings as if it had been committed in Singapore.

Clause 23 amends section 115(2) —

- (a) by deleting paragraphs (i) and (q) relating to regulations for the control of lighting, which amendment is related to the deletion of section 4(2)(l) by clause 3(b); and
- (b) by amending paragraph (o) such that regulations may be made to provide, if necessary, for the equipping of members of the public for the purposes of civil defence, which amendment is related to the amendment of the current section 4(2)(d) (renumbered section 4(2)(c)) by clause 3(b).

Clause 24 contains a saving and transitional provision.
