- (x) to extend or consolidate the Minister's power to make regulations under section 77(1)(h), (i), (j), (k) and (o).

Clause 1 relates to the short title and commencement.

Clauses 2(a) and 24 amend sections 2(1) and 27J, respectively, by transferring the definition for the term "Lifelong Income Fund" from section 27J (which provides for the interpretation of Part IIIB) to section 2(1), as that term will be used not only in Part IIIB but also in section 66 (as amended by clause 34).

Clause 2(b) deletes and substitutes the definition of "minimum sum" in section 2(1) to make changes to the definition that are consequential to the amendment of section 15(6)(a) by clause 7(h).

Clause 2(c) amends section 2(1) by introducing a new definition for the term "relevant individual", which will be used in sections 18, 19 and 19A (as amended by clauses 9, 11 and 12, respectively). A relevant individual will be such individual as the Minister may prescribe by regulations made under section 77(1) for the purposes of section 18(1)(a), (2)(a) and (3)(a), and the Minister may prescribe different individuals in different regulations for different purposes. Thus, the Minister may, by such regulations, extend the classes of transferees under section 18(1)(a), (2)(a) and (3)(a) to persons other than a member's parent, grandparent, spouse or sibling.

Clause 2(d) amends section 2(1) by introducing a new definition for the term "Town Council", which is used in sections 17(b), 21(1)(ca)(ii) and 21B(1)(c) and the new section 77(1)(h)(iii)(A) (inserted by clause 42(a)).

Clause 2(e) inserts new section 2(8) and (9).

The new section 2(8) provides for how the age of a member is to be reckoned, for the purposes of determining the rates of contributions applicable to the member, where the date, month or year of birth of the member cannot be ascertained.

The new section 2(9) —

- (a) empowers the Board to recompute the amount of contributions payable by a member or his employer, where the Board is notified of the date, month or year of birth of the member after computing that amount based on any rates of contributions determined in accordance with the new section 2(8); and
- (b) requires the member or his employer (as the case may be) to pay the shortfall, if the recomputed amount is higher than the amount that the Board computed originally, in addition to the amount that the Board computed originally if not previously paid.

The member or his employer (as the case may be) will pay the amount that the Board computed originally, if that amount is higher than the recomputed amount.

Clause 3(a) deletes and substitutes section 3(2) to empower the Board, subject to the provisions of the Act, not only to sue and be sued in its corporate name (which is the present law), but also to acquire and dispose of property, both movable and immovable, and to perform such other acts as bodies corporate may by law perform.

Clause 3(b) inserts a new section 3(5A) to empower the Board, with the approval of the Minister, to form or participate in the formation of any company, or to enter into any joint venture or partnership, for the purposes of —

- (a) the Act; or
- (b) carrying out all or any of the following:
  - (i) the functions and duties of the Board;
  - (ii) any thing which the Board may engage in under section 76(1)(a) or (b).

Clause 4 deletes and substitutes paragraph (a) of section 6(4B) to restrict the application of sub-paragraph (ii) of that paragraph to a member who belongs to such class of members as the Minister may prescribe by regulations made under section 27Q, and to make consequential technical amendments to other parts of that paragraph.

Clause 5 inserts new section 13(7H) and (7I).

The new section 13(7H) empowers the Board, where it has transferred under certain provisions any money standing to the credit of a member in the Fund from any account of the member in the Fund (Account A) to any other account in the Fund (Account B), to do the following on its own motion or on the application of the member:

- (a) restore to Account A the whole or any part of the amount of the transferred money;
- (b) pay into Account A the whole or such part, as the Board may determine, of any interest that would have been payable on the restored amount if the restored amount had not been transferred to Account B; and
- (c) transfer, from Account B to the general moneys of the Fund, the whole or such part, as the Board may determine, of any interest paid on the restored amount while the restored amount was in Account B.

The new section 13(7I) empowers the Board, where any money has been credited to or paid into a member's account in the Fund under certain provisions, to do the following on its own motion or on an application to it:

- (a) refund to the person who paid the money, or pay to any person whom the Board is satisfied is entitled to that payment, the whole or any part of the amount of the money; and
- (b) transfer, from the member's account in the Fund to the general moneys of the Fund, the whole or such part, as the Board may determine, of any interest paid on the amount so refunded or paid while that amount was in that account.

Clause 6(b) inserts a new section 13B(3A), while clause 6(a) makes a consequential amendment to section 13B(3). Under the new section 13B(3A), where any contribution or interest thereon is or may become due to the Board from any person, and the aggregate of the amounts referred to in section 13B(3) which are contributed by or for that person in any year exceeds the sum referred to in section 13B(3), the Board may —

- (a) retain the whole or any part of the excess contributions; and
- (b) set off the retained excess contributions against the contribution or interest that is or may become due to the Board from that person.

Clause 7(d) inserts a new section 15(1D), while clause 7(a) makes a consequential amendment to section 15(1A). Under the new section 15(1D), the authority of the Board under section 15(1) may be given for a withdrawal from the Fund under the new section 15(4)(b) (inserted by clause 7(g)) by a member who has attained the age of 55 years, without any application being made by that member under section 15(1A).

Clause 7(b) amends section 15(1A) to enable the authority of the Board under section 15(1) to be given not only on the application of a person who is entitled to withdraw money from the Fund (which is the present law), but also on the application of a person who within such period as the Board may determine will be entitled under section 15(2)(a) or (3) to withdraw money from the Fund.

Clause 7(c) amends section 15(1B) to enable the authority of the Board under section 15(1) to be given, without any application being made by a relevant member under section 15(1A), for the payment by the relevant member of a premium referred to in section 27L(1) or (1A) not only from any amount deposited in his retirement account under section 15(6C)(a) or (b)(i) (which is the present law), but also from any other amount standing to his credit in his retirement account.

Clause 7(e) amends section 15(2A) and (8A) to require the amounts under section 15(2A)(a) and (b) and (8A)(a) and (b), respectively, to be set aside or topped-up not only at the time the sum standing to a member's credit in the Fund is withdrawn (which is the present law), but also at such other times as the Minister may determine.

Clause 7(f) amends section 15(2A)(b), (7B)(b) and (8A)(b) to enable the Minister to waive the requirement to set aside or top-up the prescribed amounts under section 15(2A)(b), (7B)(b) and (8A)(b), respectively.

Clause 7(g) deletes and substitutes section 15(4) to enable the Board to allow a member who has attained the age of 55 years —

- (a) to withdraw the sum standing to his credit in the Fund if he satisfies the Board that he has been unemployed throughout the period of 6 months immediately preceding the date on which he makes an application for the withdrawal (which is the present law); and
- (b) to withdraw, within such time as the Board may permit, the whole or any part of the amount of any money that is paid, repaid or refunded into his account in the Fund pursuant to a charge under section 15(9) or (9A), 21(1), 21A(1) or 21B(1), or the new section 15(11D) or (11E), 27C(1)(v)(A) or (B), 27D(1)(v)(B), 27DA(1)(v), 27E(1)(iv) or 27F(1)(iv) (inserted by clause 7(s), 18(d), 19(d), 20, 21(b) or 22(a), as the case may be), or pursuant to an undertaking given under section 15(10) or (10A).

Clause 7(h) amends section 15(6)(a) to clarify that the minimum sum that is prescribed may vary from one member to another. This amendment aligns section 15(6)(a) with section 77(1)(o)(i), which provides for the prescribing, by regulations, of different minimum sums for different classes of members.

Clause 7(i) amends section 15(6A) to restrict it to cases where 2 members of the Fund have made a joint application before 1st January 2013 to set aside jointly an amount which is less than 2 times the minimum sum.

Clause 7(j) amends section 15(6C) to provide for how the amount standing to the credit of a member in his retirement account is to be utilised. Presently, section 15(6C) provides for the utilisation of a member's minimum sum.

Clause 7(k), (l) and (n) makes technical amendments to section 15(6C)(a) and (b)(i) and (7), respectively, that are consequential to the amendment of section 15(6C) by clause 7(j).

Under the existing section 15(6CA), such a transfer is contingent on the member becoming entitled under section 15(2)(a) to withdraw the sum standing to his credit in the Fund.

Clause 7(m) also inserts a new section 15(6CB) to enable different amounts and different times to be prescribed for different classes of members under the new section 15(6CA).

Clause 7(o) amends section 15(7B) to require the amounts under section 15(7B)(a) and (b) to be set aside or topped-up not only at the time a member withdraws the amount referred to in section 15(6C)(b) or any part thereof from his account with an approved bank or his retirement account, or surrenders his approved annuity purchased from an insurer with that amount, which is the present law, but also at such other times as the Minister may determine.

Clause 7(p) amends section 15(9), (9A), (10) and (10A) to restrict the application of section 15(9), (9A), (10) and (10A), respectively, to cases where an application is made to the Board before 1st January 2013 to permit a member to withdraw the amount referred to in section 15(6C)(b) or part thereof from his account with an approved bank or his retirement account, or to surrender his approved annuity purchased from an insurer with that amount.

The new section 15(11) to (11F) is inserted to provide for cases where an application is made to the Board on or after 1st January 2013 to permit a member to withdraw the amount referred to in section 15(6C)(b) or part thereof from his account with an approved bank or his retirement account, or to surrender his approved annuity purchased from an insurer with that amount. In each such case, there will be a charge constituted on an immovable property owned by the member, or jointly owned by the member and one or more persons, to secure the payment to the Board of the amount withdrawn or of the entire surrender value of the approved annuity, as the case may be. The charge will continue in force until the Board is satisfied of the occurrence of any of certain events which will be prescribed in regulations made under section 77(1).

The Board may permit such a withdrawal, in accordance with any regulations made under section 57 or 77(1) and if certain requirements are satisfied, for one or more of the following purposes:

- (a) for such medical, psychiatric or other treatment or services received by the member as may be prescribed by those regulations (which is the present law);
