EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to —

- (a) set out and declare the national symbols and presidential symbols of Singapore and regulate their use;
- (b) repeal the Singapore Arms and Flag and National Anthem Act 1959; and
- (c) make related amendments to certain other Acts.

Part 1 (clauses 1 and 2) contains preliminary provisions.

Clause 1 relates to the short title and commencement.

Clause 2 relates to interpretation.

Part 2 (clauses 3 to 9) and the First Schedule set out and declare 7 national symbols: the National Flag, the National Anthem, the National Pledge, the National Coat of Arms, the public seal, the Lion Head symbol and the national flower (the Vanda Miss Joaquim). The description of the symbolism of the National Flag is updated so as to be gender neutral.

Part 3 (clauses 10, 11 and 12) and the Second Schedule set out and declare 3 presidential symbols: the Presidential Standard, the Presidential Coat of Arms and the seal of the President.

Part 4 (clauses 13, 14 and 15) contains general provisions.

Clause 13 enables the President to amend any of the Schedules in relation to any aspect or description of a national symbol or a presidential symbol.

Clause 14 enables the President to make regulations for the purposes of the Bill.

Clause 15 requires prosecutions under the Bill to be instituted by or with the consent of the Public Prosecutor.

Part 5 (clauses 16 to 19) repeals and amends other legislation.

Clause 16 repeals the Singapore Arms and Flag and National Anthem Act 1959.

Clause 17 replaces section 59(1)(f) of the Evidence Act 1893 to require the courts to notice the public seal and the seal of the President.

Clause 18 amends a reference to the National Emblems (Control of Display) Act 1949 in section 117(1)(b)(iv) of the Foreign Interference (Countermeasures) Act 2021, in consequence of the renaming of the former Act by clause 19.

Clause 19 renames and amends the National Emblems (Control of Display) Act 1949 so that that Act refers to “foreign national emblems” instead of “national emblems”. This will more accurately reflect the scope of that Act, and will also avoid confusion with the Bill.

EXPENDITURE OF PUBLIC MONEY

This Bill will not involve the Government in any extra financial expenditure.
