(1A) The Minister may, before a general election, require the Registration Officer to bring up-to-date any register prepared under subsection (1) in such manner and by reference to such year as the Minister may direct.

(2) For the purpose of satisfying himself as to the qualification of any elector, the Registration Officer may make such enquiry as he may consider necessary.

(3) On the completion of the register for any electoral division, the Registration Officer shall give notice in the Gazette that the register is completed and that the register, or a copy thereof, is open for inspection at all reasonable hours of the day at the office of the Registration Officer and at such other place or places in or near the electoral division and at such overseas registration centres as may be specified in the notice.

(2) Every claim under subsection (1) shall be in writing and shall be in Form 3 in the First Schedule and shall reach the Registration Officer within 2 weeks from the date of publication in the Gazette of the notice of completion of the register.

(2A) Within 21 days from the expiry of the period of 2 weeks referred to in subsection (2), the Registration Officer shall exhibit notices containing the names and addresses of the claimants (if any) at the place or places in or near the electoral division in which those claimants reside and at the overseas registration centres specified in the notice mentioned in section 10 (3).

(8A) The notice of objection shall be in Form 6 in the First Schedule.

(9) The Registration Officer shall as soon as practicable hold a public inquiry into all claims and objections which have been duly made, giving not less than 6 clear days' written notice of the date on which and the time and place at which the inquiry will commence to each claimant, objector and person in regard to whom objection has been made.

(9A) At any such public inquiry, any person appearing to the Registration Officer to be interested in or affected by the subject-matter of the inquiry may appear and be heard either by himself or by any other person duly authorised by him in writing in that behalf.

(9B) Notwithstanding subsection (9), the Registration Officer may, without any public inquiry, allow any claim in respect of which no objection has been made if he is satisfied that the claim should be allowed and shall insert the claimant's name in the register and, where applicable, register the person as an overseas elector.

(10) Where an objection is made to the inclusion or insertion of any name in the register, the Registration Officer shall call upon the objector, or some person authorised in writing in that behalf by the objector, to give prima facie proof of the ground of the objection.

(11) If such prima facie proof is given, the Registration Officer shall require proof of the entitlement of the person in regard to whom objection has been made, and —

- (a) if the person's entitlement is not proved to the Registration Officer's satisfaction, he shall expunge that person's name from or, as the case may be, refuse to insert that person's name in the register; or

- (a) the paper shall, unless it already bears the complete official mark for the authentication of ballot papers, be affixed, stamped or marked (by writing or otherwise) by the presiding officer in the approved manner with that official mark or the remaining part thereof, or initialled by the presiding officer;
- (b) the number, name and description of the voter, as stated in the copy of the register of electors, shall be called out;
- (c) the number of the elector shall be marked on the counterfoil; and
- (d) a mark shall be placed in the register against the number of the elector to denote that he has received a ballot paper but without showing the particular ballot paper which he has received.

[18/99]

(3) The voter, on receiving the ballot paper, shall immediately proceed to such place in the station as may be indicated by the presiding officer or by any person acting under that officer's authority, and shall there secretly mark the paper as near as may be in accordance with the directions given for the guidance of voters under this Act.

(3A) The voter shall then fold the paper so as to conceal his vote, and shall put the paper so folded up into the ballot box.

(3B) The voter shall vote without undue delay and shall leave the polling station as soon as he has put his ballot paper into the ballot box.

(4) The presiding officer or any person authorised by him may ask any voter if the voter understands the method of voting in accordance with this Act and may, if he thinks fit, on the application of any voter, explain to the voter, in the presence of the polling agents of the candidates if present, the method of voting in accordance with this Act; but in so doing he shall carefully abstain from any action which might be construed by the voter as advice or a direction to vote for any particular candidate or group of candidates.

(5) The presiding officer, on the application of a voter who is incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause from voting in the manner prescribed by this Act, shall mark the ballot paper of the voter in the manner directed by the voter, and shall cause the ballot paper to be placed in the ballot box.

(6) The presiding officer may at any time while a poll is proceeding take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that no voter delays unduly in any place reserved for the marking of ballot papers.

(7) During the taking of the poll, the presiding officer shall cause to be exhibited outside his polling station a notice in English, Malay, Chinese and Tamil, substantially in the form set out in the Second Schedule, giving directions for the guidance of voters in voting.

Compulsory voting

43.—(1) Every elector shall record his vote at each election in the division for which he is registered.

(2) The Returning Officer shall, at the close of each election, prepare a list of the numbers, names and descriptions as stated in the register of electors of such electors as have failed to vote at the election and certify the list under his hand.

(3) Notwithstanding section 49 (9) to (12), it shall be lawful for the Returning Officer to break the seals of packets containing the marked copies of the registers of electors and to inspect and retain those copies for the purpose of preparing the list referred to in subsection (2) and of any inquiries connected therewith.

(4) The list prepared by the Returning Officer under subsection (2) shall be forwarded by the Returning Officer to the Registration Officer.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, the Registration Officer shall on receipt of such list cause the names of all persons appearing in the list to be expunged from the register.

(6) The Registration Officer shall give notice in the Gazette that such list has been received by him from the Returning Officer and that that list or copies thereof are open for inspection at all reasonable hours of the day at the office of the Registration Officer and at such other place or places in or near each electoral division and at such overseas registration centres as may be specified in the notice.

(7) Every person whose name appears on the list of which notice has been given by the Registration Officer under subsection (6) may make a written application for the restoration of his name to the register of electors.

(8) If any applicant under subsection (7) satisfies the Registration Officer that he has a good and sufficient reason for not having recorded his vote, his name shall be restored to the register without penalty.

(8A) Where the applicant does not satisfy the Registration Officer under subsection (8), his name shall be restored to the register on payment of the sum of $5 to the Registration Officer.

(9) Any name to be restored to the register under subsection (8) or (8A) shall, except as otherwise provided in subsection (11), be restored the day after the Registration Officer has satisfied himself that the applicant has a good and sufficient reason for not recording his vote or the day after the payment of the sum of $5 to the Registration Officer, as the case may be.

(10) Where any person whose name is to be restored to the register under subsection (8) or (8A) has notified the Commissioner of National Registration of any change in his address and it appears from such change of address that he is no longer residing in the same electoral division, his name shall be restored to the appropriate register of the electoral division in which he is residing.

(11) Where a writ of election has been issued under section 24 for an election in any electoral division, no name shall be restored to the register of that division until after nomination day or, if a poll is to be taken, until after polling day.

Declarations by voters

44.—(1) The presiding officer at any polling station may, in his discretion, require any voter, before he is given a ballot paper, to furnish such evidence of his identity as the presiding officer may consider necessary and to make and subscribe to all or any of the declarations set out in Forms 13, 14 and 15 in the First Schedule.

(2) Every such declaration shall be exempt from stamp duty.

(3) If any person fails to furnish such evidence of his identity or refuses to make any such declaration, the presiding officer may refuse to give him a ballot paper.

(4) If any person wilfully makes a false statement in any such declaration, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $500 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

Spoilt ballot papers

45.—(1) A voter who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such a manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper may, on delivering to the presiding officer the ballot paper so inadvertently dealt with, and proving the fact of the inadvertence to the satisfaction of the presiding officer, obtain another ballot paper in place of the ballot paper so delivered up (referred to in this Act as a spoilt ballot paper).

(2) The spoilt ballot paper shall be immediately cancelled by the presiding officer.

Tendered votes

46.—(1) If a person representing himself to be a particular elector named in the register applies for a ballot paper after another person has voted as such elector, the applicant shall, on taking an oath of identity, which may be administered by the presiding officer and which shall be in Form 16 in the First Schedule, be entitled to receive a ballot paper and to vote in the same manner as any other voter.

(2) The ballot paper (referred to in this Act as a tendered ballot paper) shall be of a colour different from the other ballot papers, and, before being placed in a ballot box, shall be endorsed by the presiding officer with the name of the voter and his number in the register, and that number shall be entered in a list (referred to in this Act as the tendered votes list).

(3) Tendered ballot papers shall be dealt with in the manner hereinafter provided.

Closing of poll

47.—(1) No ballot paper shall be delivered to a voter after the hour fixed for the closing of the poll.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if at the hour fixed for the closing of the poll there is in the polling station any voter to whom a ballot paper has been delivered, the voter shall be allowed to record his vote.

Procedure on closing of poll

48.—(1) As soon as practicable after the close of the poll, the presiding officer of each polling station shall, in the presence of such of the candidates and their polling agents as attend, make up into separate packets, sealed with his own seal and the seals of the candidates or their agents if they desire to affix their seals —

- (a) the unused and spoilt ballot papers placed together;
- (b) the marked copies of the register of electors;
- (c) the counterfoils of the ballot papers; and
- (d) the tendered votes list.

(2) The ballot box or boxes unopened shall be secured by the presiding officer and sealed with his seal and with the seals of such of the candidates or their agents as attend and desire to affix their seals, in such manner that the box or boxes cannot be opened and nothing can be inserted therein without breaking the seals.

(3) Every presiding officer of a polling station shall despatch each such packet and the ballot box or boxes in safe custody to the Returning Officer or an Assistant Returning Officer at the counting place where the votes cast at the polling station are to be counted in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(4) Where the Returning Officer has, in any direction made under section 48A (1), specified a polling station to be a counting place, the presiding officer of the polling station shall keep at that station every such packet and the ballot box or boxes in safe custody pending counting of the votes at that polling station.

Counting places

48A.—(1) The Returning Officer may —

- (a) direct that the votes cast at any polling station or stations in Singapore for an electoral division be counted at such counting place for that electoral division (which may or may not be a polling station) and time as he may specify; and

- (b) where more than one counting place is specified for an electoral division under paragraph (a), direct that the total number of votes given to each candidate or group of candidates at the poll be ascertained at a principal counting place for that electoral division (which may or may not be a counting place for that division) and time as he may specify.

(2) The votes cast at all overseas polling stations shall be counted at such place or places in Singapore as the Returning Officer directs.

[19/2001]

(3) The Returning Officer shall give notice in writing of his direction under subsection (1) or (2) to each candidate or his election agent not less than 2 clear days before polling day.

[42/96; 19/2001]

Counting votes

49.—(1) Subject to subsection (2) —

- (a) counting agents for any candidate nominated for an electoral division other than a group representation constituency may be appointed either by the candidate or his election agent only; and
- (b) counting agents for any group of candidates nominated for a group representation constituency may be appointed either by the election agent of any candidate in the group or the principal election agent for that group only.

[18/99]

(2) Not more than one counting agent may be appointed for a candidate or group of candidates to attend the counting of votes at each counting place specified in the direction made under section 48A (1).

[18/99]

(2A) The Returning Officer shall make arrangements for the counting of votes in the presence of such of the candidates and their counting agents as attend as soon as practicable —

- (a) where only one counting place is specified for an electoral division in a direction made under section 48A (1) — after he has received at that counting place all the ballot boxes used during the poll conducted in Singapore; or
- (b) where more than one counting place is specified for an electoral division in a direction made under section 48A (1), after —

- (i) the procedure in section 48 has been complied with at the close of the poll if the counting place is also a polling station; and
- (ii) the Assistant Returning Officer in charge of each counting place has received at his counting place all the ballot boxes containing the votes cast at the polling station or stations in Singapore which are specified in the direction to be counted at that counting place, subject to any directions from the Returning Officer to delay or postpone the counting.

(3) The Returning Officer, his assistants and clerks, and the candidates and their counting agents, but no other persons except with the sanction of the Returning Officer, may be present at the counting of the votes.

(4) Before the Returning Officer proceeds to count the votes, he or a person authorised by him shall, in the presence of such of the candidates and their counting agents as attend, open each ballot box and, taking out the papers therein, mix together the whole of the ballot papers contained in the ballot boxes.

(4A) The Returning Officer, while counting the votes, shall keep the ballot papers with their faces upwards, and take all proper precautions for preventing any person from seeing the numbers printed on the back of the papers.

(5) The Returning Officer shall so far as practicable proceed continuously with counting the votes and shall endorse “rejected” on any ballot paper which he may reject as invalid.

(6) The Returning Officer shall not count the tendered ballot papers but shall place them in separate packets according to the candidate or group of candidates whom they support and shall mark each packet with the name of the candidate or group of candidates and shall seal the packet and retain it unless it is required for the purposes of an application under section 90.

(7) Where only one counting place is specified for an electoral division under section 48A (1), the Returning Officer shall, when the counting of votes cast at all polling stations in Singapore is completed at that sole counting place or, if a recount thereof is allowed under section 49B, after that recount is completed, immediately act as follows:

- (a) where the total number of overseas electors lawfully entitled to vote at the election in that electoral division is less than the difference between the number of votes given to the candidates or (as the case may be) groups of candidates with the 2 greatest number of votes, the Returning Officer shall declare the candidate or (as the case may be) group of candidates to whom the greatest number of votes is given to be elected; or
- (b) where the total number of overseas electors lawfully entitled to vote at the election in that electoral division is equal to or more than the difference between the number of votes given to the candidates or (as the case may be) groups of candidates with the 2 greatest number of votes, the Returning Officer shall declare the number of votes cast in Singapore in favour of each candidate or (as the case may be) group of candidates at the election, and the date and premises at which the votes cast by the overseas electors will be counted.

(7A) Where more than one counting place is specified for an electoral division in a direction made under section 48A (1), an Assistant Returning Officer shall, immediately after the counting of votes cast in Singapore is completed at the counting place under his charge and, if a recount thereof is allowed under section 49B, after the recount is completed, at each counting place for the electoral division —

- (a) announce to the candidates or their counting agents as attend the number of votes given to each candidate or group of candidates;
- (b) prepare a record (referred to in this Act as the record of counting) in a prescribed form containing the number of votes given to each candidate or group of candidates and other results of the counting of votes at his counting place, and certify that record;
- (c) transmit to the principal counting place for that electoral division, by any means available, the results of the counting of votes at his counting place; and
- (d) seal up in an envelope the record of counting and despatch or deliver the envelope in safe custody to the principal counting place for that electoral division.

[42/96; 19/2001]

(7B) Except with the sanction of the Returning Officer, no person other than the following persons may be present at a principal counting place during the addition of votes:

- (a) the Returning Officer and such other officers and staff appointed by him to assist him in adding the votes cast for each candidate or group of candidates at the counting places and ascertaining the total number of votes given to each candidate or group of candidates at the poll; and
- (b) the candidates and their election agents or, where the votes to be added relate to a group of candidates, the groups of candidates and their principal election agents.

[42/96]

(7C) Notwithstanding subsection (7B), where a principal counting place is also a counting place, such counting agents as were present during the counting of votes may continue to be present during the addition of votes.

[42/96]

(7D) At a principal counting place for an electoral division, the Returning Officer shall, upon receipt of the results of the counting of votes at all counting places for that electoral division, ascertain the total number of votes given to each candidate or group of candidates at the poll by adding up the number of votes recorded for each candidate or group of candidates in those results.

[42/96]

(7E) When the total number of votes cast at polling stations in Singapore for each candidate or (as the case may be) group of candidates at an election in an electoral division is ascertained under subsection (7D), or if a recount thereof is allowed under section 49B, after that recount is completed, the Returning Officer shall immediately act as follows:

- (a) where the total number of overseas electors lawfully entitled to vote at the election in that electoral division is less than the difference between the number of votes given to the candidates or (as the case may be) groups of candidates with the 2 greatest number of votes, the Returning Officer shall declare the candidate or (as the case may be) group of candidates to whom the greatest number of votes is given to be elected; or
- (b) where the total number of overseas electors lawfully entitled to vote at the election in that electoral division is equal to or more than the difference between the number of votes given to the candidates or (as the case may be) groups of candidates with the 2 greatest number of votes, the Returning Officer shall declare the number of votes cast in Singapore in favour of each candidate or (as the case may be) group of candidates at the election, and the date and premises at which the votes cast by the overseas electors will be counted.

(8) When, after the counting of votes (including any recount allowed under section 49B) is completed, an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates or groups of candidates, and the addition of a vote would entitle any of the candidates or groups of candidates to be declared elected, the determination of the candidate or group of candidates to whom the one additional vote shall be deemed to have been given shall be made by lot in the presence of the Returning Officer in such manner as he may determine.

[10/88; 19/2001]

(9) After the Returning Officer has made any declaration under subsection (7) or (7E), he shall ensure that the following procedures are complied with at every counting place and principal counting place:

- (a) all ballot papers and all other documents relating to the election at every counting place and principal counting place shall be sealed up in separate packets and placed in any ballot box or boxes;
- (b) the ballot box or boxes shall then be sealed with the seal of the Returning Officer and the seals of such of the candidates or their counting agents as attend and desire to affix their seals;
- (c) the sealed ballot box or boxes shall be despatched and delivered in safe custody to the Returning Officer;
- (d) subject to subsection (10), the ballot papers and other documents in the sealed ballot box or boxes shall be retained in safe custody for a period of 6 months; and
- (e) the ballot papers and other documents shall be destroyed at the end of the period of 6 months unless otherwise directed by order of the President.

[19/2001]

(10) A Judge of the High Court may make an order that any ballot paper or other document relating to an election which has been sealed as required by this Act be inspected, copied or produced at such time and place and subject to such conditions as the Judge may consider expedient.

(11) A Judge of the High Court shall not make an order under subsection (10) unless he is satisfied that the inspection, copy or production is required for the purpose of instituting or maintaining a prosecution or an application under section 90 in connection with the election.

[42/2005]

(12) Except as provided in this section, no person shall be allowed to inspect any such ballot paper or document after it has been sealed up in pursuance of subsection (9).

[16/93]

Counting of votes by overseas electors

49A.—(1) All the sealed ballot boxes containing the votes cast at any overseas polling station must arrive at the office of the Returning Officer in Singapore not later than 10 days after polling day at an election in order for those votes to be counted.

[19/2001]

(2) The Returning Officer shall make arrangements for the votes cast by overseas electors to be counted at such place or places in Singapore as he directs under section 48A (2).

[19/2001]

(3) Subject to subsection (1), such arrangements shall provide for the counting of votes cast by overseas electors in the presence of the candidates and their counting agents as attend as soon as practicable after all the sealed ballot boxes used at overseas polling stations during the poll have been received by the Returning Officer in Singapore.

[19/2001]

(4) Sections 49, 49B and 50 shall apply to the counting (including recounting, if any) of the votes cast by overseas electors.

[19/2001]

(5) Where the Returning Officer has made a declaration under section 49 (7) (b) or (7E) (b), the number of votes given by overseas electors to each candidate or group of candidates shall be added to the number declared by the Returning Officer as the number of votes cast in Singapore, respectively, for each candidate or (as the case may be) group of candidates, and the Returning Officer shall immediately declare the candidate or (as the case may be) group of candidates to whom the greatest total number of votes is given to be elected.

[19/2001]

(6) After the Returning Officer has made any declaration under subsection (5), he shall ensure that the following procedures are complied with:

- (a) all ballot papers and all other documents relating to the election at every place where the votes of overseas electors are counted shall be sealed up in separate packets and placed in any ballot box or boxes;
- (b) the ballot box or boxes shall then be sealed with the seal of the Returning Officer and the seals of such of the candidates or their counting agents as attend and desire to affix their seals;
- (c) the sealed ballot box or boxes shall be despatched and delivered in safe custody to the Returning Officer;
- (d) subject to section 49 (10), the ballot papers and other documents in the sealed ballot box or boxes shall be retained in safe custody for a period of 6 months; and
- (e) the ballot papers and other documents shall be destroyed at the end of the period of 6 months unless otherwise directed by order of the President.

[19/2001]

Recounting of votes

49B.—(1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), any candidate at an election in an electoral division or his counting agent may —

- (a) if he is present at the sole counting place specified for the electoral division and the counting of votes at that counting place is completed; or
- (b) if he is present at the principal counting place specified for the electoral division and the votes counted at all counting places for that electoral division have been added at that principal counting place, apply to the Returning Officer to have the votes given at the election recounted.

[19/2001]

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), the Returning Officer shall allow and conduct a recounting of votes if an application for a recount is made under this section.

[19/2001]

(3) Not more than one application to recount the votes given at any election in an electoral division shall be made or allowed under this section.

[19/2001]

(4) Without prejudice to subsection (3), no application for a recount shall be made and no recount shall be allowed under this section where the difference between the number of votes given to the candidate or (as the case may be) group of candidates with the most votes and the number cast for any other candidate or (as the case may be) group of candidates is more than 2% of the total number of votes cast (excluding rejected votes and tendered votes) at the election.

[19/2001]

(5) No step shall be taken under section 49 to declare any candidate or group of candidates elected until the candidates or counting agents present at the sole counting place for an electoral division or the principal counting place for the electoral division, as the case may be, have been given a reasonable opportunity to exercise the right conferred by this section.

[19/2001]

(6) Where an application for a recounting of votes is allowed by the Returning Officer, the votes at the counting place or, if there are more than one, at every counting place shall be recounted and added following the same procedure set out in sections 49 and 50.

[19/2001]

(7) This section and section 50 shall apply to the recounting of votes cast by overseas electors with such modifications as are necessary.

[19/2001]

Votes to be rejected

50.—(1) The Returning Officer shall reject as invalid the following ballot papers only, namely, any ballot paper —

- (a) which does not bear the complete official mark for the authentication of ballot papers or is not initialled by the presiding officer;
- (b) on which votes are given for more than one candidate or group of candidates;
- (c) on which anything is written or marked by which the voter can be identified except the printed number on the back;
- (d) which is unmarked; or
- (e) which is void for uncertainty.

[10/88; 18/99]

(2) Where the Returning Officer is satisfied that any mark made on a ballot paper clearly indicates the intention of the voter and the candidate or group of candidates for whom he gives his vote, the Returning Officer shall not reject the ballot paper on the ground solely that it has not been marked in all respects in accordance with the directions given for the guidance of voters under this Act.

[10/88]

(3) Before rejecting a ballot paper, the Returning Officer shall show it to each candidate or his counting agent if present and hear his views thereon, taking all proper precautions to prevent any person from seeing the number printed on the back of the paper.

(4) The decision of the Returning Officer whether or not any ballot paper shall be rejected shall be final and shall not be questioned on an application under section 90.

Approval of DRE voting systems

50A.—(1) No DRE voting system shall be used at any poll in any electoral division unless the DRE voting system is approved before the date of the writ of the election under section 24 by —

- (a) the Auditor-General; or
- (b) any person appointed by the Minister in consultation with the Auditor-General.

[19/2001]

(2) The Auditor-General or person appointed under subsection (1) shall not approve any DRE voting system for use at any election in any electoral division unless, after conducting such tests as he considers necessary in the presence of the Returning Officer and such representatives of any political party as are present, he is satisfied that the DRE voting system —

- (a) permits voting in secrecy;
- (b) permits each voter to vote from all the candidates or groups of candidates as are nominated for the election;
- (c) operates safely and efficiently and accurately counts all votes cast for each candidate or group of candidates;
- (d) is set to detect voting errors and to reject all votes for any candidate or group of candidates when the number of votes recorded exceeds the number of votes that may lawfully be cast;
- (e) permits each voter to clearly see the ballot display;

- (f) is safe from fraudulent or unauthorised manipulation or operation;
- (g) ensures that all voting data stored in the DRE voting machines used shall be maintained regardless of electrical power surges or outages; and
- (h) is capable of providing records from which the operation of the DRE voting system may be audited and for verification of the accuracy of the recording and counting of votes, but that shall not allow for identification of any voter.

[19/2001]

(3) Subject to subsection (1), no DRE voting system shall be used at a poll in any electoral division unless the Returning Officer specifies, by notice under section 34 (6) or (as the case may be) 34A (6), that a DRE voting system will be used at the poll in that electoral division.

[19/2001]

(4) Where a DRE voting system is to be used at any forthcoming poll in any electoral division in accordance with this section, the Returning Officer may, for the purpose of instructing electors, provide one or more demonstrations as to the use of the DRE voting system in one or more public places within that electoral division.

[19/2001]

Approval of DRE voting machines and equipment

50B.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Returning Officer to provide at each polling station within every electoral division specified in his notice under section 34 (6) or (as the case may be) 34A (6) —

- (a) a sufficient number of DRE voting machines and other direct recording electronic voting equipment approved under subsection (2) for electors allotted to the polling station to cast their votes;
- (b) booths or other reasonable facilities within which approved DRE voting machines are to be placed to enable electors allotted to the polling station to record their votes screened from observation and to vote in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and
- (c) a sufficient number of other approved DRE voting machines, direct recording electronic voting equipment and other voting equipment in the event of any malfunction of all or any approved DRE voting machines at that polling station.

[19/2001]

(2) Not earlier than 4 clear days before polling day, the Auditor-General or person appointed by the Minister under section 50A (1) shall inspect and conduct or cause to be inspected and conducted such tests on every DRE voting machine and direct recording electronic voting equipment to be used at a poll, and if he is satisfied that any such DRE voting machine and equipment are in the proper order for use at a poll, he shall not later than on the eve of polling day —

- (a) approve the DRE voting machine and equipment so tested for use at the poll;
- (b) number the approved DRE voting machine;
- (c) seal with his seal and secure the approved DRE voting machine and direct recording electronic voting equipment against use until polling day and despatch it in safe custody to the Returning Officer who shall store it in safe custody until polling day;
- (d) make a record containing the identification numbers of every such approved DRE voting machine and the respective polling stations to which each has been allocated; and
- (e) furnish a copy of the record to such candidate or his election agent who requests such a copy before polling day.

[19/2001]

(3) Any inspection and test of DRE voting machines and direct recording electronic voting equipment under subsection (2) shall be carried out —

- (a) on such date and at such time and premises as the Returning Officer may specify by public notice not less than 5 clear days before polling day; and
- (b) in the presence of such candidate or his election agent or polling agent as may be present at those premises on that date and time.

Pre-poll testing of DRE voting system, etc.

50C.—(1) Immediately before the commencement of the poll in any electoral division specified in a notice under section 34 (6) or (as the case may be) 34A (6), the presiding officer at every polling station within the electoral division shall, and in the sight of such person as may be present at the polling station —

- (a) ensure that every DRE voting machine and direct recording electronic voting equipment delivered to the polling station for use at the poll is approved under section 50B (2) and still sealed and secured against use;

- (b) install the approved DRE voting machine and direct recording electronic voting equipment for use at the poll at the polling station;
- (c) inspect and test each DRE voting machine and direct recording electronic voting equipment so installed in the prescribed manner to ensure that it is functioning properly and take such corrective action (including replacement or repair) as is necessary to ensure that it is functioning properly; and
- (d) unsecure the DRE voting machine for use at the poll.

[19/2001]

(2) The presiding officer at a polling station using DRE voting machines and direct recording electronic voting equipment at the poll shall periodically inspect or cause to be inspected the machines and equipment for any tampering and damage or any malfunction while voting is in progress.

[19/2001]

(3) If at any time before or after the commencement of a poll using a DRE voting system, the presiding officer at a polling station determines that the approved DRE voting machines or direct recording electronic voting equipment delivered to the polling station cannot be replaced or repaired promptly and that voting cannot be continued using the remaining approved DRE voting machines and approved direct recording electronic voting equipment without interfering substantially with the orderly conduct of the poll, the presiding officer shall, with the approval of the Returning Officer —

- (a) immediately halt voting at that polling station if the poll has already commenced; and
- (b) make such necessary arrangements for voting at the polling station —
 - (i) to commence or resume, as the case may be, on the same day and close at such other hours as the Returning Officer may appoint, using either the same DRE voting system or ballot papers in accordance with the provisions of this Act; or
 - (ii) to be adjourned and conducted afresh on such other date as the Returning Officer may declare by notification in the Gazette, being a date not more than one week later, using either the same DRE voting system or ballot papers in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

[19/2001]

DRE voting system procedures generally

50D.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in sections 50B and 50C and any regulations made under this section, any poll using any DRE voting system shall be conducted in the same manner as that in which voting is conducted under sections 35 to 51, and shall be regarded as a poll for the purposes of this Act.

[19/2001]

(2) The ballot image displayed on any approved DRE voting machine at any poll shall be an identical representation in electronic form of the ballot paper used at the poll.

[19/2001]

(3) The Minister may make regulations modifying the application of any provision of this Act to the conduct of polls using a DRE voting system, including in particular, prescribing the training of presiding officers in operating DRE voting systems, the procedures on opening and closing of such a poll, the manner of voting, the counting of votes and for the safe despatch or transmission of records of voting using DRE voting machines for counting, including recounting, if any.

86. Where, upon the hearing of an application under section 90 respecting an election under this Act, the Election Judge reports that a candidate at the election has been guilty by his agents of the offence of treating or undue influence or of any illegal practice in reference to the election, and the Election Judge further reports, after giving the Public Prosecutor an opportunity of being heard, that the candidate has proved to the court —

- (a) that no corrupt or illegal practice was committed at the election by the candidate or his election agent and the offences mentioned in the report were committed contrary to the orders and without the sanction or connivance of the candidate or his election agent;
- (b) that the candidate and his election agent took all reasonable means for preventing the commission of corrupt and illegal practices at the election;
- (c) that the offences mentioned in the said report were of a trivial, unimportant and limited character; and
- (d) that in all other respects the election was free from any corrupt or illegal practice on the part of the candidate and of his agents, then the election of the candidate shall not, by reason of the offences mentioned in the report, be void, nor shall the candidate be subject to any incapacity under this Act.

[42/2005]

Power of election court to except innocent act from being illegal practice, etc.

87.—(1) Where, on application made, it is shown to an Election Judge or to a Judge of the High Court by such evidence as seems to the Judge sufficient —

- (a) that any act or omission of a candidate at any election, or of his election agent or of any other agent or person, would, by reason of being the payment of a sum or the incurring of expense in excess of any maximum amount allowed by this Act, or of being a payment, engagement, employment, or contract in contravention of this Act, or of otherwise being in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act, be but for this section an illegal practice; and
- (b) that the act or omission arose from inadvertence or from accidental miscalculations or from some other reasonable cause of a like nature, and in any case did not arise from any want of good faith, and in the circumstances it seems to the Judge, after giving the candidates, the Returning Officer, and any elector within the electoral division an opportunity of being heard, to be just that the candidate in question and the election and other agent and person, or any of them, should not be subject to any of the consequences under this Act of that act or omission, the Judge may make an order allowing that act or omission to be an exception from the provisions of this Act which would otherwise make the act or omission an illegal practice, payment, employment or hiring.

(2) Upon the making of an order under subsection (1), the candidate, agent or person shall not be subject to any of the consequences under this Act of the act or omission mentioned in that subsection.

- (a) if the candidate applies to an Election Judge or a Judge of the High Court and shows that the failure to transmit the return and statements, or any of them, or any part thereof, or any error or false statement therein, has arisen by reason of his illness, or of the absence, death, illness or misconduct of his election agent or of any clerk or officer of the agent, or by reason of inadvertence or of any reasonable cause of a like nature, and not by reason of any want of good faith on the part of the applicant; or
- (b) if the election agent of the candidate applies to an Election Judge or a Judge of the High Court and shows that the failure to transmit the return and statements which he was required to transmit, or any part thereof, or any error or false statement therein, arose by reason of his illness, or of the death, illness or misconduct of any prior election agent of the candidate, or of the absence, death, illness or misconduct of any clerk, or officer of an election agent of the candidate, or by reason of inadvertence or of any reasonable cause of a like nature, and not by reason of any want of good faith on the part of the applicant, the Judge may, after such notice of the application, and on production of such evidence of the grounds stated in the application, and of the good faith of the application, and otherwise, as to the Judge seems fit, and after giving the other candidates, the Returning Officer and any elector within the electoral division an opportunity of being heard, make such order for allowing an authorised excuse for the failure to transmit such return and statements, or for an error or false statement in such return and statements as to the Judge seems just.

(2) Where it appears to the Judge that any person being or having been an election agent has refused or failed to make such return or supply such particulars as will enable the candidate and his election agent, respectively, to comply with the provisions of this Act as to the return and statements respecting election expenses, the Judge shall —

(a) before making an order allowing the excuse as in this section mentioned shall order the person to attend before the Judge; and

(b) unless the person attends and shows cause to the contrary, order him to make the return and statements, or to deliver a statement of the particulars required to be contained in the return, as to the Judge appears just, and to make or deliver them within such time and to such person and in such manner as the Judge may direct, or may order him to be examined with respect to those particulars, and, in default of compliance with that order, the person shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

(3) The order may make the allowance conditional upon the making of the return and statements in a modified form or within an extended time, and upon the compliance with such other terms as to the Judge seems best calculated for carrying into effect the objects of this Act.

(4) An order allowing an authorised excuse shall relieve the applicant for the order from any liability or consequences under this Act in respect of the matter excused by the order.

(5) Where it is proved by the candidate to the Judge that any act or omission of the election agent in relation to the return and statements respecting election expenses was without the sanction or connivance of the candidate, and that the candidate took all reasonable means for preventing the act or omission, the Judge shall relieve the candidate from the consequences of the act or omission on the part of his election agent.

(6) The date of the order or, if conditions and terms are to be complied with, the date at which the applicant fully complies with them is referred to in this Act as the date of the allowance of the excuse.

- (c) that a corrupt practice or illegal practice was committed in connection with the election by the candidate or with his knowledge or consent or by any agent of the candidate;
- (d) that the candidate personally engaged a person as his election agent, or as a canvasser or agent, knowing that the person had, within 7 years prior to the engagement, been convicted or found guilty of a corrupt practice by a District Court or by the report of an Election Judge;
